

Suburban Society

Thursday, September 25, 2008

SOCIETY

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 25, 2008 THE SUBURBAN AND WAYNE TRIBUNE 57

Friends of CcTC 'Cruise for the Kids' takes place aboard the Moshulu

Photos by Keith Foster

The Friends of Children's Crisis Treatment Center (CcTC) attended the eighth annual "Cruise for the Kids" fundraiser aboard the Moshulu. It was presented by Brown Hill Development and the Goldenberg Group. Guests enjoyed an evening of great food, live music and amazing raffle prizes while supporting the Friends of CcTC's efforts to raise money and awareness an important cause. From left, Rebecca Cook of Berwyn, Gabe Canuso of Rosemont and Jan Shaeffer of Philadelphia were pictured during the event. The Friends of CcTC is a group of young professionals from the Philadelphia region dedicated to strengthening CcTC's mission through exciting and unique community events, activities and fundraisers. Contributions to the "Cruise for the Kids," the Friends' signature event, support the services CcTC provides to children and families in Philadelphia. To join the Friends of CcTC please visit www.cctckids.org.

